Centrally sponsored educational schemes

2810. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the salient features of the centrally sponsored schemes of Joint GOI-Un Programme for Primary Education; Sarvasiksha Abhiyan; National Programme for Women's Education; Literacy Campaign; Operation Restoration support to NGOs in the field of Adult Education (earlier Shramic Vidyapeeth); Counting Education for New Literates; Culture Exchange Programme;

(b) what are the criteria for allocating funds under each scheme to States and the corresponding Central share;

whether these funds are given to States as 100 percent grant or the usual 70/30 (loan/grant) formula is followed for Plan assistance; and

(c) the details of proposals received, funds released and utilization for last three years. State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. (SHRIMATI) RITA VERM A): (a) The salient features of various centrally sponsored schemes referred to in the Question are as follows:—

1. Janshala (Joint GOI-UN Programme): It is a community-based primary education programme with the objective of making primary education more accessible and effective, especially for girls and children of deprived communities, marginalised groups, SC/ST/ minorities, working children and children with special needs. The programme is a collaborative effort of the Government of India and five UN agencies viz. UNDP, UNICEF, UNESCO ILO and UNFPA to provide programme support to the ongoing efforts towards achieving Universalisation of Elementary Education. The programme presently covers 139 blocks and 10 cities in 31 districts spread over 9 States i.e. Andhra Pradesh, Chattisgarh, Jharkhand, Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Orissa Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh. The UN agencies have committed a contribution of US$ 20 million as a grant for this programme.

2. Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA): It is a newly launched scheme with a holistic and integrated approach to acheive the objective of Universalisation of Elementary Education. The programme aims to provide useful and quality elementary education of 8 years to all children in the 6—14 age group by 2010. The programme will cover all the districts in the country. The expenditure on the programme will be shared between Centre & States in the ratio 85:15 in the 9th Plan, 75:25 in the 10th Plan and 50:50 in the 11th Plan and in the subsequent Plan periods.

3. National Programme for Women's Education: At present no such scheme is under operation.

4. Literacy Campaigns and Operation Restoration: The Total Literacy Companies (TLC) is the principal strategy of the National Literacy Mission for eradication of illiteracy. Besides imparting functional literacy, it also include interventions for encreasing enrolement and retention of children in schools, immunisation, propagation of small family norms, promotion of maternity and child care, women's equally and empowerment, peace and communal harmony etc. On conclusion of TLC, Post Literacy Programme (PLP) is taken up for consolidation of literacy skills and integration of skill development programmes. Out of 598 districts in the country, 574 districts are covered under Adult Education programmes. The funding pattern is ratio of 2:1 and 4:1 between Centre and State Governments for normal and tribal districts respectively.

5. Continuing Education: The scheme aims at providing further learning opportunities to neo-Literatcs by setting up Continuing Education Cetnres, to serve population of 2000-2500 by providing facilities of library, reading room, learning centre etc. The Central Government provides 100% funding for the first three years which is to be shared between the Central and State Governments equally during the next two years. The scheme has been sanctioned to 112 districts in 18 States and Union Territories. Recurring assistance is provided to the Nodal and Continuing Education Centre @ Rs. 45,000/- and 25,000/- per year respectively. A non-recurring assistance is also provided on the same scale once in five years.

6. Jan Shikshan Sansthan (formerly known as Shramik Vidyapceth): The scheme aims to provide polyvalent or multi-faceted adult education programme by improving the vocational skills and quality of life of its beneficiaries, which are mostly nco-litcratcs, semi-literates and non-Literates. It concentrates on the socio-economically backward and educationally dis-advantaged groups of urban/rural population, such as neo-litcrates, semi-literates, SCs, STs, women and girls slum dwellers, migrant workers, etc.

7. Culture Exchange Programme: Ministry of Culture is the nodal agency for formulation of Cultural Exchange Programmes and monitoring their implementation. Cultural Exchange Programmes incorporate specific provisions for exchanges such as visits of professors, experts, scholars, artists, writers, performing troupes sports teams, exhibitions, youth and children's groups, radio and TV programmes, awards of scholarships, training in specialised fields, institutional cooperation and participation in international, fairs, exhibitions, festivals etc. They also include items for establishment of institutional links, especially between universities and other institutions of higher education and research. No State-wise releases have been made by this Department under these programmes.

(b) and (c) The entire Central share for the above schemes is released as grant. Funds are released to the concerned States/State Implementation Societies as per the funding pattern of various schemes, progress of expenditure, availability of unspent balances etc. In the case of Janshala (Joint GOI-UN Programme), funds were released by the concerned UN agencies directly to the project States upto March, 2001 and therefore figures of expenditure are reported. In the case of Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA), since the programme was launched during the last financial year only, figures of utilisation of funds are yet to become available. In the case of schemes for Adult Education, unutilised funds during the year are allowed to be carried over to the next financial year. The information relating to funds sanctioned/expenditure on the above lines is given in the statement.
